- Those JYPE, COLABS, or IPLA students who are judged to be "Tentative" 2, 3, or 4 level have to decide whether to enroll in classes EITHER at your tentative level OR one level below. You cannot register for classes both at your tentative level and one level below at the same time (for example, if you are Level 4 (Tentative) you must choose whether to register for Level 3 classes OR Level 4 classes). Those JYPE, COLABS, or IPLA students who are judged to be "Tentative" 5 or 6 level may enroll in classes in your tentative level and those one level below simultaneously (for example, if you are Level 5 (Tentative) you may enroll in Level 5 classes and Level 6 classes simultaneously).

Also, you cannot simultaneously take 2 classes with C-L/S or C-R/W classes (however, we recommend taking C-L/S and C-R/W simultaneously; you can simultaneously take C-L/S with 3 or 4 classes, and C-R/W with 2 or 3 classes).

5. If a two-letter code appears in the "Other" section, the class is a seminar. These are International Co-learning Seminars, except for classes marked BU, CL, PD, and PD International and Japanese students take international Co-learning Seminars together. They participate in discussions and cooperative projects to deepen their intercultural understanding. Special auditing students, non-degree students, undergraduate students, and graduate students can receive credit for International Co-learning Seminars if they register them as General Education subjects.
