Class Subject	【展開ゼミ】Exploring Miyagi Local Companies through Interviews ~宮城の地元企業へのインタビューを通して、地方企業の魅力を探る-国際共 修ゼミ-
Object and Summary of Class	In this course, students will be provided with opportunities to do research on Japanese companies in the local community, conduct interviews with employees, and gain deeper insights into the Japanese business community. Findings of the field research will be summarized in the form of paper-based and on-line articles and will be made available to the local community. This class incorporates intercultural co-learning methods where students from different backgrounds will collaborate on the projects.
Goal of Study	After completion of this course, students will be able to: - use intercultural communication skills to work with people from diverse cultural backgrounds. - acquire basic knowledge about Miyagi local companies through interviews, and obtain skills to gather information and present effectively.
	1)異文化コミュニケーションスキルを用い、文化背景が異なる人々と協働することができる 2)インタビューを通して宮城県内企業について十分理解し、インタビューで得た情報をまとめ、説得力のある魅力的な発表をすることができる
Contents and Progress Schedule of the Class	This course consists of three components: (1) lectures and workshop (online), (2) group work (online), and (3) on-site fieldwork or online interviews. Basically, the course uses the Monday 2nd period and will occasionally run overtime into lunch period. Sessions 7, 8 and 9 are assigned for fieldwork interviewing without class time. Though students are required to set a time for interviews, the actual interview times will depend on the businesses' schedules. Students will gain basic knowledge of Miyagi local business environments and interviewing skills in the first half of the course. Then students will work on a group project in the latter half of the course through interviewing local companies, discussion sessions, and the final presentation. Lectures and discussions will be conducted mainly in English. Japanese may be used during interview sessions; however, an assistant will be provided. The schedule is subject to change. 1.
