④ 授業の 目的と概要 /Object and Summary of Class	The major objective of this course is to consider issues of education and development in a comparative perspective and understand trends of research on education and development in an Asia-Pacific context. Although Asia-Pacific region has made a comprehensive progress in achieving SDG4 since 2015. With a rapid economic and social development, this region is also facing unprecedented challenges, such as rise of inequality and social exclusion at country and local levels. In education sector, on one hand, there are increasing number of people who can get access to schooling. On the other hand, there are different forces formulating inclusiveness, quality and resilience of people's education in this region, which have been interpreted and analyzed through western theories rather than by Asian thoughts. Therefore, in this course, first students will learn achievements and challenges of education and development from different targets of SDG4 and country studies in Asia-Pacific region. Then, student will be introduced to understand research paradigms in international education and development and comparative education and development. More importantly, students will be encouraged to consider and interpret education and development in Asia-Pacific in an Asian context and Asian methods.
