Organizer : Sendai UNESCO Association

Cooperation: Tohoku University Global Learning Center

Experience Japan's traditional culture.
You can wear a kimono and walk around Jozenji Street and Nishi Park!

Free to attend

Kimono, which has been passed down through a long history, is one of Japan's proud traditional cultures.

In the rich nature and changing seasons, Japan people have cultivated a unique sense of beauty and expressed that sense of beauty in kimonos. Kimonos and obi make use of Japan craftsmanship. Experience Japan culture by actually wearing kimonos with beautiful colors and patterns. Collaborative Organizations NPO Irodori Minna no michi
