

2019 NCHU Summer School

College of Engineering

Are you interested in professional course in engineering fields? Apply for NCHU's Summer School organized by the College of Engineering. We are hosting eight international professors from our partner universities to teach at NCHU this summer. All are specialized in engineering fields. This is a great chance to learn and have fun in Taiwan at NCHU.

Deadline: May 31, 2019

Course fee: Free

Location: National Chung Hsing University, Taiwan

Students: Only for engineering students

(Each course only accepts 20 limited quota for foreign students.)
