Language Requirements

You are required to sit for the online English Language Placement Test prior to cohort distributions. The test will be made available one week before commencing date.

Alternatively, if you may have undertaken all or part of your education in English and/or may have extensive experience using English on a regular basis in your daily life, you may select your own cohorts in the application from whether it goes for Fundamental, Intermediate, or Advanced.

On this basis, you could reasonably be expected to fully participate in our SEPVRUM without sitting for the English Placement Test.

Programme Fees

Tuition Fee : USD768

Schedule

The courses will run during the following dates:

Week 1: 24 Aug - 28 Aug 2020

Week 2: 31 Aug - 04 Sep 2020

Week 3: 07 Sep - 11 Sep 2020

The courses will run during the following hours daily:

Session 1: 08.30 am – 10.30 am

Session 2: 11.30 am – 13.30 pm

Teaching and Assessment

The course is taught through a combination of formal presentations by the instructors; a range of interactive and participative methods of teaching and learning, and through reading and assignments to be undertaken individually by students outside the course sessions. Such interactive and participative methods of teaching and learning may include small and whole group exercises, case studies, structured seminar discussion, oral presentations etc.

You will learn how to present your creative ideas both through speaking and writing. You will also have access to online support through our virtual learning database, which will accelerate your learning and enhance your experience of the course.

You are expected to take an active part in the course and submit work showing evidence of learning. In particular, you will be expected in each session to:

1. get online for each session
2. participate actively in class work
3. undertake reading and assignments set by the instructors
4. access resources and submit assignments as required

It is essential that you have an email account and regular access to the internet. The course is supported by a google domain and course communications will be sent via email. Your assignments will be submitted online, and feedback on assignments is sent to you online.

You will retain access to the course virtual database and learning resources for one academic year after completing the course.

Participating in SEPVRUM from anywhere in the world. Our 3-week courses take place virtually at the comfort of your home. Class sizes are kept small with the assistance of i-smart buddies to maximise interaction between participants and instructors.
